

Books can say “Thank You for your hospitality”, “Happy Holidays”, “Enjoy your retirement”, “Happy Birthday” and so much more. The Blue Hill Historical Society offers a wide selection.

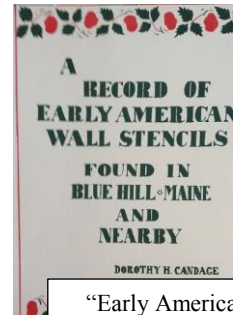

“At Home Around the World” by R.G.F. Candage - For the arm-chair sailor - $25.00

“Hannah Wood of Blue Hill, Maine” by Esther Wood - For the child in all of us – $17.95

“Bits of Local History” by William Hinckley – articles reprinted from the Weekly Packet $15.00

“Early American Wall Stencils”, by Dorothy Candage – A must-have if your home has stencils – $15.00

“Vital Records of Blue Hill – 1792-1892”, By Richard Sawyer –for the genealogist- $25.00

“Head of the Bay”, by Annie Clough - a wonderful history of Blue Hill (reprint) $15.00

“Historical Sketches of Blue Hill, Maine”, by R.G.F. Candage – takes you house by house through town. 2 Vol. $15.00 each

“In Guardians’ Footsteps”, a history of the Blue Hill Fire Dept, By Dennis Robertson $15.00

“Seaside Cemetery”, Grave location guide, with map, BHHS publication $5.00

“Old Cemetery of 1794”, Edited by W.P. Hinckley, BHHS publication $3.00

“Blue Hill Bibliography”, by Robert Sweetall – where to find information on many topics - $5.00

“Stories of Blue Hill History”, BHHS publication – Six Biographies of Blue Hill citizens - $10.00

Books can also be purchased at Blue Hill Books on Pleasant Street or by mail: Blue Hill Historical Society, P.O. Box 710, Blue Hill, Maine 04614. Shipping cost will be calculated based on books ordered.

You can do all of this.

Sail around the world on a Clipper Ship;

See East Blue Hill through the eyes of a child;

See the painted stencils in E.B. White's home;

Go house by house through historic Blue Hill;

Follow Firefighters through a century;

Stroll through the Old Settler's Cemetery;

And so much more with:

Books For Sale

at the Blue Hill Historical Society

The Jeremiah Thorndike Holt House
Built in 1815
Home of the Blue Hill Historical Society